Description

A Late Victorian Rosewood and Marquetry Side Cabinet. Of striking design and rich decorative appeal, this late Victorian side cabinet is crafted in finely figured rosewood and raised upon turned feet. The lower section is arranged with a central mirrored door, flanked by cupboards, offering both visual depth and practical storage. Above, the superstructure features a central mirror plate, enclosed by astragal-glazed doors to either side, creating an elegant and balanced display arrangement. The whole is enhanced by turned columns and finely executed marquetry inlays, providing contrast and intricate detail throughout, characteristic of high-quality late Victorian craftsmanship. A versatile and decorative cabinet, well suited to both display and storage within a traditional interior. Comes in 2 Sections and is Presented in Good Condition. Size: Height 95" (241cm) Width 60" (152cm) Depth 19" (48cm)
