

SA1209199

Rare Victorian silver
Hanoverian drop pattern jam or spoon Hunt and Roskell London
1872

Price

GBP 165

| USD $223 | EUR 193

Item Reference: SA1209199

Date of manufacture: Victorian

Description

A fine Victorian silver jam or sauces spoon in the very rare Hanoverian thread and drop pattern with a prominent rat tail and a rounded rectangular bowl. The reverse of the terminal with a unicorn crest. This pattern is illustrated and described on page 90 of 'Silver Flatware' by Ian Pickford. By top makers of the period, excellent weight, quality and condition, crest worn, ready to be used. Maker: John Hunt and Robert Roskell London 1872
Dimensions: 143mm. 43.6g

Internal Ref: S1350

Seller Details

Carlyon Silver

Gloucestershire United Kingdom

Tel: 07795 205 689

International Tel: +44 7795 205 689

