Description

A charming late 19th-century French farmhouse table crafted from solid cherry wood, featuring a single drawer and an extending breadboard end. This piece has been inspected by our specialists and freshly waxed, enhancing its warm natural colour. It shows beautiful signs of age, including historic woodworm (fully treated) and an authentic patina consistent with its history. These characteristics add depth, honesty, and character to the table, making it a wonderful addition to both traditional and contemporary interiors. Dimensions Width: 200 cm Depth: 81 cm Height: 73 cm Leg room: 60 cm A versatile and timeless table that will complement any home décor, offering both practicality and rustic French charm.
