Description

A handsome mid-19th century camphor wood trunk, circa 1850, showcasing a rich tone and beautifully figured grain throughout. The solid construction is complemented by brass carry handles to either side and protective corner straps. The trunk retains a working lock and key, and opening the lid reveals the unmistakable, fresh camphor aroma—highly prized for its natural protective qualities. A versatile piece of good proportions, ideal for use as a coffee table, blanket chest, or statement storage piece. A charming and functional antique with timeless character.
