Description

This beautifully carved walnut panel dates from the late 19th century and is a fine example of decorative European craftsmanship, rich in detail and character. Executed in solid walnut, the panel displays a warm, deep patina that enhances the intricate carving. The composition is particularly striking, featuring a finely worked scene framed by scrolling foliage and classical ornament. At the top, a pair of cherubic figures emerge amongst stylised leaves and scrolls, lending a sense of movement and elegance. Below, a delicately carved architectural backdrop is intertwined with flowing vines and foliage, leading the eye down to a lively scene set in a French Bar. The quality of the carving is evident throughout, with crisp detailing and a strong sense of relief that brings the scene to life.
