Description

Victorian Carved Oak Bookcase Item Code: S27-1098 A striking late 19th century Victorian carved oak bookcase cabinet of exceptional presence and craftsmanship, formed as a two-part piece with a glazed upper display and enclosed cupboard base. Richly ornamented throughout, this impressive example showcases deep, bold carving typical of the period, with a particularly decorative façade that makes it a true statement piece. The upper section features a pair of glazed doors opening to reveal adjustable shelving, ideal for books or display. The doors are framed by intricately carved borders with repeating geometric motifs, while the frieze above is adorned with scrolling foliage and stylised detailing. The whole is further enhanced by carved mask and foliate decoration to the corners, adding depth and character. Below, the base section offers excellent storage behind two panelled doors, each carved with highly decorative geometric designs centred by expressive lion mask motifs. The sides are equally well worked with floral and foliate carvings, demonstrating the quality and consistency of craftsmanship throughout. The cabinet stands on a moulded plinth base, completing the robust...
