Description

An elegant Regency overmantel mirror, the landscape shaped mirror within a gilt slip and quarter moulded border, in a lightly swept burr elm frame with mitered corners and a gilt cushion moulded edge, and with plain block supports to each side, the back with sugar paper over boards. English, circa 1810. Condition: Very good, the mirror is in excellent condition with no damage or repairs, the plate appears to be the original but remains clear with a couple of small marks near the top; the frame is in excellent condition with no damage to the wood or loss to the gilding. There are two mirror plates fitted on the sides near the top. Overall the mirror has pleasing proportions and an appearance of the elegant simplicity associated with Regency country furniture.
