Description

Victorian Mahogany Hall Table with Two Drawers Item Code: LC1414 A refined late 19th century Victorian mahogany hall table of elegant proportions, combining practical design with understated classical styling. Constructed in solid mahogany, the table displays a warm, rich colour and attractive grain throughout, enhanced by a gently aged patina. The rectangular top sits above a pair of frieze drawers, each fitted with turned wooden knobs and offering useful storage for everyday items. The drawers are neatly integrated into the apron, maintaining the clean and balanced appearance of the piece. Raised on four well-turned legs, the table has a light and graceful stance while remaining sturdy and functional. The simplicity of the design allows it to work equally well in a hallway, living room, or as a writing or console table. A versatile and timeless Victorian piece, ideal for both traditional and contemporary interiors. Key Features: * Late 19th century Victorian mahogany hall table * Solid mahogany construction with good colour and grain * Two frieze drawers with turned wooden handles * Elegant turned legs with classic proportions * Clean, simple design suitable for multipl...
