Description

An attractive 19th century pine dresser. The dresser features three drawers fitted with wooden knobs and brass escutcheons, above an attractive shaped apron. This is supported by turned supports to the front and square legs to the back, with a potboard base below of broad pine boards. Above is a handsomely proportioned rack featuring three fixed shelves, resting on front leg supports. The dresser comes apart into two sections for ease of transport. The dresser has been stripped and maintains an attractive mellow colour and tone. The dresser base is nicely proportioned and a particularly nice example of its kind. Item Reference: M-6629B . Dimensions: Height – 208.5cm / Width – 143cm / Depth – 44cm / Surface Height - 77cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition, with signs of wear commensurate with age and use. There are marks, scratches and areas of wear throughout. There is evidence of historic woodworm, particularly to the front and drawer fronts as pictured; however, this is long since inactive and has been treated as a precaution. All drawers are solid and sound, and they run well. There are minor splits to the top, but the piece is structurally solid and sound...
