Description

Victorian Deep Buttoned Leather Armchair Item Code: RA1 A handsome Victorian period leather armchair of classic form, featuring a deep buttoned back and shaped arms, raised on elegant cabriole front legs. The chair displays a rich, warm tan leather with excellent colour and character, complemented by a solid mahogany frame and traditional brass studded detailing. A comfortable and generously proportioned piece, ideal for both traditional and contemporary interiors. Key Features: * Genuine Victorian period armchair, circa 1880–1900 * Deep buttoned backrest with scroll arms * Tan leather upholstery * Brass studded trim throughout * Solid mahogany frame with cabriole front legs * Good proportions and very comfortable seating Condition: In good antique condition overall, with age-related wear consistent with use. The leather shows attractive patination throughout, with visible creasing, surface cracking, and areas of wear to the seat and arms as shown. There are some small scuffs and marks, along with light wear to the wood frame. Structurally sound and ready for use, with a desirable worn-in character. Dimensions: Width: 70 cm Depth: 82 cm Height: 104 cm
