Description

A fine and impressive mid-18th century walnut chest of drawers, dating to the Georgian period, of desirable proportion and exceptional colour. The chest is configured with three short drawers over three long graduated drawers, offering both practical storage and a pleasing, balanced façade. The drawer fronts are beautifully figured, displaying rich walnut grain with warm, honeyed tones and a deep, naturally developed patina that only time can achieve. Each drawer is adorned with decorative brass drop handles and shaped escutcheons, complementing the character of the piece and enhancing its period appeal. The top is of generous proportion with a subtle moulded edge, sitting above clean-lined sides and a well-shaped base raised on bracket feet, giving the chest an elegant and grounded stance. A versatile and highly decorative piece, ideal for use in a bedroom, hallway, or reception room, where it will add warmth and authenticity to both traditional and more contemporary interiors. Offered in very good antique condition, with age-related wear consistent with its mid-18th century origins, adding to its charm and integrity. A handsome and increasingly sought-after example ...
