Description

Elegant Queen Anne style walnut cabinet, circa 1920, presented in two sections. The upper cabinet features 2 doors boasting a beautifully figured walnut, with a split interior (left and right compartments), complete with working locks and keys. Below, the base offers a practical arrangement of two short drawers over two long drawers, all adorned with brass drop handles. The piece is finely detailed with crossbanded and featherbanded decoration across the top, doors, and drawer fronts. Raised on bracket feet, this cabinet combines classic proportions with functional storage, making it both a decorative and useful addition to any interior.
