Description

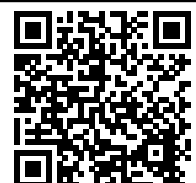

An attractive 19th century mahogany wardrobe. The wardrobe features a pair of panelled doors with well-figured mahogany and crossbanded detail, with further inlay throughout. The front edge of the doors is finished with a traditional brass detail. The doors open to reveal a spacious interior with side-by-side extending hanging rails with brass hanging loops for hangers and additional brass hooks. The wardrobe features a deep drawer fitted with swan neck handles, raised on shaped bracket feet. A lovely example of its kind. Item Reference: M-6795 . Dimensions: Height - 204cm / Width - 127cm / Depth - 54cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition. There are marks and scratches throughout, including a gouge to the front right door panel. There are also scratches and staining to the bracket feet. There is some minor loss to the cornice, as pictured. To the base of the left hand side there is a historic split to the timber. However, the piece remains structurally solid and sound. The drawer runs well and the latch to the doors is working correctly. All inlay is intact, and the drawer and cupboard interior is clean and presentable. Overall, a lovely example of its kind. O...
