Description

A fine hand painted Famille Rose Chinese Export Rose bowl. The interior and exterior panels exhibiting both floral, and figurative displays, richly painted and coloured throughout. A very fine example in good condition. The bowl has been purchased privately from an important estate in England. The condition is generally very good free from repairs or restoration. There is a tiny mark on the edge of the rim, likely caused in firing pic 6 attached. The bowl rings like bell with a beautiful rich, high pitch. dating from the late 1800s or early 1900s
