Description

A handsome French cherrywood blanket box of simple, rustic charm, crafted from solid boards with a warm, even colour and attractive grain. The wood has developed a lovely patina over time, with light marks and wear consistent with age and use, giving the piece an honest, lived-in character. The interior is clean and spacious, ideal for storing blankets, linens or seasonal items. Sturdy hinges and a well-made carcass reflect traditional rural craftsmanship. A practical and decorative piece that sits comfortably in both period and modern interiors, offering useful storage with authentic French country appeal.
