Description

A charming antique early 20th century bureau in Chinese rosewood, very well made and of fine quality throughout. This impressive piece is beautifully carved with exceptional attention to detail, showcasing intricate Chinese imagery that highlights its craftsmanship and decorative appeal. The upper section features a finely fitted interior, complete with shelving to either side, while the lower section includes a generous central kneehole, offering both practicality and comfort for use as a writing desk. A useful central drawer adds further storage. It displays a gorgeous rosewood grain with rich colour throughout, enhancing its luxurious and exotic appearance. The overall design is both elegant and highly decorative, making it a standout feature in any interior. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable and relatively rare example that would make a perfect addition to any home.
