Description

A wonderful sewing spool box, the like I haven't had in the past; originating in the Scottish town of Mauchline during the Victorian era. The box is in the form of a train car labelled " Pullman Parlor Car ". The top has a charming floral panel. The interior of the lid retains the original Clark & Co. paper Cottons label. The train car stands on four wheels which do turn around. A real must for the Mauchline enthusiast or sewing devotee. The lid measures 8 3/4" x 3 3/4" x 3 1/2" tall.
