Description

A beautiful antique solid oak coffee table, showcasing elegant proportions and classic period design. The piece features a rectangular top with gently moulded edges, raised on graceful cabriole legs that add a refined, traditional character. Crafted from solid oak, the table has a rich, deep tone with visible grain and natural variation, giving it warmth and authenticity. Its low profile makes it ideal as a coffee table or occasional table in both classic and contemporary interiors. A timeless and practical piece with understated elegance. In very good antique condition. Signs of age and use including light surface wear, marks and patina to the top, consistent with its age. Structurally sound and stable.
