Description

A charming antique early 20th century Edwardian mahogany side table, very well made and of excellent quality throughout. This attractive piece displays a gorgeous mahogany grain and rich warm colour throughout, giving it wonderful character and timeless appeal, with a solid and well-built feel that reflects the quality of its craftsmanship. It stands on sturdy square legs with elegant proportions, and bears the maker's mark for Court Bros of Canterbury, adding further interest and authenticity to the piece. The fine construction and classic design make it both practical and highly decorative. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable example and would make a perfect addition to any home.
