Description

A fine quality set of four solid silver coffee spoons each decorated with a symbol for a different card suit. The spoons are wonderfully cast with Art Deco scrollwork and each finial is then a card suit symbol with the relevant coloured enamel. The spoons are all in excellent condition and are also in the original box retailed by Walker and Hall. Each spoon is fully hallmarked for Birmingham with the date later for 1922 and makers mark for Turner and Simpson. The spoons are a very rare set that are of wonderful quality, and were probably made for use whilst playing cards such as whist. Overall size of the box: 5 ¾ by 4 ¾ by ¾
