Description

A charming antique early 20th century Edwardian set of four oak dining chairs, very well made and of good quality throughout. This attractive set features comfortably overstuffed seats and padded backs, all upholstered in a beautiful patterned fabric that adds both colour and decorative appeal. Each chair stands on elegant turned legs, complete with brass casters for ease of movement and a refined period touch. The oak frames display a gorgeous grain and warm rich colour throughout, enhancing their classic Edwardian character. With solid, well-built frames and pleasing proportions, these chairs are both practical and stylish. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable set that would make a perfect addition to any home.
