Description

This is a bronze bust titled "Bakie" by the French sculptor Georges-Charles Coudray (1863-1932). The sculpture is in the Orientalist style, depicting a woman with an Egyptian-inspired headdress and hairpins. Coudray was known for his sculptures of orientalist female figures. It is often considered an Art Nouveau piece, dating to around the late 19th or early 20th century. The name "BAKIS" is signed on the base of the sculpture.
