Description

A beautifully balanced and enduringly elegant vintage diamond trilogy ring, dating to the 1950s and crafted in the classic manner with a platinum crown and warm 18ct yellow gold shank. Set with three bright brilliant cut diamonds, this ring captures the timeless symbolism of past, present and future—making it a deeply meaningful choice for an engagement or special anniversary. The stones are perfectly arranged across the finger, each claw set to allow maximum light to pass through, creating a lively and continuous sparkle. The platinum setting enhances the brightness of the diamonds, while the softly tapered yellow gold band provides a graceful and comfortable fit. Understated yet refined, this is a piece that will never fall out of fashion. A true mid-century classic, elegant on the hand and effortlessly wearable every day.
