Description

A fine quality late 19th century inlaid rosewood games , or card, table by Maple & Co. of London. Very well constructed in solid rosewood with attractive rosewood veneers onto a solid mahogany carcass. With a single drawer to the front and standing on elegant cabriole legs. Decorated throughout with crisply cast ormolu mounts. The top is decorated with profuse inlaid detailing of musical scenes in satinwood and boxwood. The top rotates and opens to reveal a baize lined playing surface. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops and now offered for sale in excellent overall original condition. The original baize is in-situ , it bears some stains and marks. Dimensions: Width and Depth 60cms Height 74.5cms When open 80x80cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple , who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furni...
