Description

Impressive Early 19th Century Antique Chest of Drawers in Original Paint – Provenance. Dating from around 1820-30, this is a large scale English original painted pine antique chest of drawers, still in the original lovely two tone cream paint finish that has never been over painted. Providing lots of storage with the two short over four long and graduating cock beaded drawers, all six drawers run well and have ash wood linings with the original sugar bag blue lining papers inside. Each drawer has the original lovely fruit wood turned handles and the chest stands on tall original bun feet. In very good, totally original condition throughout and comes with interesting provenance given to the next owner. Dimensions Height: 131cm (51.98") Width: 118cm (46.83") Depth: 58cm (23.02")
