Description

A fine example of an early 19th Century box. It is made from mahogany with an interesting pagoda shape and gilt ball and claw feet. The lid has a brass knob and the interior is painted a nice pale yellow colour. It was possibly once a tea caddy or sewing box but would suit a variety of uses now. It is in good condition for its age and it has a lovely patina. There are some minor signs of age and use, some small knocks and marks but no major damages or anything detrimental. The inside is generally clean and tidy. The box has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £10
