Description

A beautiful pair of Royal Doulton vases dating from circa 1905-1910. They are decorated in the Art Nouveau style, typical of early Doulton pieces, with a scrolling floral design in shades of blue and green above a brown base. They are a lovely elegant tapering shape with garlic necks and flared rims. Each vase has the impressed Doulton stamp, model number 7821 and incised initials BN for Bessie Newbery. They are in excellent condition with no damages or restoration. There are some minor signs of age and use and some light surface wear in places but nothing untoward and they display beautifully. Approximate Measurements : Height : 7" / 18cm Base Diameter : 4" / 10cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
