Description

A lovely small mahogany drop-flap work table dating from the early 19th Century. It stands on ring turned legs with its original brass castors. There are two drawers at one end of the table with small brass handles and matching dummy drawers at the opposite end. The drop leaves are supported by small hinged wooden flaps. It is in good condition and displays very well. It is strong and sturdy and in good order with a nice rich colour. The leaves are flat and easy to put up and the drawers open smoothly. There are some signs of age and use, some minor marks and knocks here and there but nothing untoward or detrimental. There is some historic worm below the leaves in the supporting flaps which has all been treated as a precaution. The table has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. Approximate Measurements: Height : 29" / 74cm Depth : 19" / 48cm Width (closed) : 14 1/2" / 37cm Width (open) : 27" (69cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
