Description

A superb pair of antique French gilt bronze wall sconces, richly decorated in the Louis XVI style and dating to the 19th century. These elegant ormolu wall lights feature finely cast ram's head masks, classical urn finials, and scrolling arms adorned with detailed garlands and foliate decoration. Crafted in solid gilt bronze (ormolu), the sconces display exceptional quality and craftsmanship, with a warm aged patina that enhances their decorative appeal. Each sconce supports two candle arms, making them ideal as statement lighting or wall decoration in both traditional and contemporary interiors. Perfect for use in a living room, hallway, dining room, or as decorative accents in an interior design scheme, these antique French wall lights bring a sense of luxury and timeless elegance. A rare and highly decorative matching pair, ideal for collectors of fine antique lighting and French decorative arts. Dimensions: Height 50cm x Width 38cm x Depth 15cm
