Description

A striking collection of three graduated copper jugs, crafted in the Art Nouveau, Arts and Crafts style by Joseph Sankey, circa 1908. Each piece showcases elegant Art Nouveau detailing, featuring the distinctive elongated tulip and heart motif synonymous with the period. The jugs are in excellent antique condition, with only light surface wear and occasional minor dents consistent with age and use, adding to their authentic charm. All three are stamped to the base with the Joseph Sankey registration mark, along with size reference numbers (1, 2, and 3) on the largest example. Dimensions: approximately 24 cm, 18.5 cm, and 15 cm in height. Offered as a complete group: £495.00 You can find more items of interest and purchase through our website, using all major credit cards: please visit: www.oliversargentantiques.com
