Description

Late Victorian Duet Piano Stool – Adjustable Seats – Newly Upholstered – Rare Nice original late Victorian duet piano stool with two seats side by side. A bit of an unusual piece, as each seat can be adjusted separately, which you don't often see. It's been recently reupholstered in a clean, neutral patterned fabric, so it's ready to go straight into use. The wooden frame has a good colour and shows the sort of light wear you'd expect for its age, but nothing major. Stands on turned legs with a stretcher underneath, so it feels solid and stable. Would work well as a piano stool, or just as an interesting antique piece. Details: * Late Victorian * Double (duet) seat * Both seats adjust independently * Newly upholstered * Solid and usable Condition: Overall good vintage condition. Upholstery is new. Frame has some age-related marks but nothing that affects use. A fairly rare thing to come across, especially with both adjusters working.
