Description

Just arrived back in stock on 28 April, this outstanding Breitling Top Time reference 2002-33 has undergone a complete full service, been fitted with a new leather strap, and received a light sympathetic polish. It is now presented in perfect working order and excellent overall condition – ready to wear and enjoy. Introduced in 1964, the Top Time was Breitling's youthful, modern chronograph, offering a fresher alternative to the more technical Navitimer and Chronomat. This silver "panda" dial configuration is one of the most attractive and desirable variants and dates this example to 1969.
