Description

A pair of late 19th century (circa 1890) Chinese hardwood shaped pot stands or low tables with marble inset tops. This pair of stands consist of shaped Chinese rouge marble tops recessed into the hardwood tops with ball bead carving to the outer edge. This leads down to a deep moulding with a carved and pierced frieze below with foliate carving, the top of the legs consisting of a carved dragon face leading down to foliate carved decoration, the cabriole legs supported by a shaped stretcher terminating with ball and claw feet. This pair of pot stands are in very good condition for age, are of stable construction and can go straight into a home - these are very versatile pieces and could be used as stands, low tables, coffee tables etc. Size: Height: 15.75" / 40cm Width: 15" / 38cm Depth: 15" / 38cm
