Description

A fine antique French Louis XV style kingwood commode, featuring an elegant serpentine form and original marble top. Beautifully veneered in kingwood with striking grain, the piece is richly adorned with ornate gilt bronze (ormolu) mounts and decorative edging throughout. The central panel showcases a hand-painted Vernis Martin scene, depicting a romantic pastoral setting, adding depth, artistry and strong decorative appeal. The shaped sides, cabriole legs and refined proportions reflect classic 18th century French design, making this both a functional storage cabinet and a statement piece. The interior offers practical storage with a fitted shelf, ideal for use as a side cabinet, occasional cupboard or feature commode in a living room, hallway or bedroom. Dimensions: Height 113cm x Width 94cm x Depth 42cm A highly decorative antique French commode combining marble, kingwood veneer and Vernis Martin lacquer work—perfect for collectors and interior designers seeking authentic period furniture.
