Description

An impressive Edwardian mahogany fold-over card table in the Chippendale revival style. The hinged top folds open to a green baize playing surface with circular counter wells to the corners, all set over a swag-carved breakfront frieze with blind fretwork panels and raised on cabriole legs terminating in finely carved paw feet. A versatile and decorative piece of pleasing scale suited to use as a side table in a hallway or drawing room, while the fold-over top offers a practical full-sized surface for cards or drinks when required. Very good antique condition with some surface wear consistent with age and use. There is a solid existing repair to one of the rear swing-out legs, along with minor losses to the carved swag and fretwork detail. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1900. Closed - H: 78 W: 91 D: 48 cm Open - H: 75.5 W: 91 D: 90.5 cm
