Description

For sale a mid-Victorian Aneroid barometer engraved to TS & JD Negus, Navigation Warehouse, 140 Water Street, New York and manufactured by PNH B in its original case. Comprised of a five-inch silvered dial divided with a 360-degree scale measuring 25 to 31 inches of barometric pressure and with weather indications engraved to the upper half. The lower half is engraved with the words Holosteric Barometer with manufacturer's logo for the prolific French barometer making firm of Pertuis, Naudet, Hulot & Bourgeois (PNHB). The retailer's name is engraved in a circular design to match the scale stating the famous US marine instrument making firm of, TS & JD Negus, Navigation Warehouse, 140 Water Street, New York. It is completed with blue steel pointer and brass set hand operated through the glass by means of a brass knurled adjusting knob. The dial and movement are contained behind a brass spun bezel with graduated brass case stamped to PNH B to the reverse and with integrated hanging ring to the top. The outer case is covered in leather throughout, with a lovely fitted purple velvet interior which retains the gilt embossed lettering to the inner lid stating the retailers na...
