Description

A late Georgian oak lowboy, with a richly patinated boarded top set over a single frieze drawer with a brass swan-neck handle, above shaped front and side aprons, all raised on turned legs. Of useful low proportions and distinct country vernacular character, it works well as a small side table, hall piece or as a characterful bedside table. Very good antique condition with lots of interesting surface wear and a mellow patina consistent with age and use. Evidence of historic, long dormant woodworm. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1800. H: 64 W: 73 D: 53 cm
