Description

A fine pair of Regency mahogany console tables, dating to circa 1800. Crafted from solid mahogany, each table displays a pleasing light, warm tone with attractive grain throughout. The tops feature a well-defined reeded edge and rounded corners. Raised on slender, ring-turned legs with delicate proportions, the tables are further enhanced by understated black inlaid detailing. A versatile and highly decorative pair, ideal for use in a hallway, drawing room, or as side tables, offering both historical charm and practical function.
