Description

We have a good looking English oak desk chair C1910, very likely by Cookes of Finsbury - "Cooke's of Finsbury was a London-based manufacturer established in 1885, renowned for high-quality Edwardian and Art Deco office furniture, particularly in English oak and walnut." Sitting in a highly desirable original condition we have a good looking oak frame with pleasing on the eye shaped arms, double stretcher, deep back rail and slatted back. Our workshop has carefully lifted the original grain Rexine seat, replaced the tired webbing with new webbing and carefully refitted the Rexine with the original brass aged studs. If you wish for a new leather seat our upholsterer would be happy to oblige at a cost of £80 plus VAT plus leather - we do have some colours in stock. The seat sits well after a light beeswax and is ready for placing. A lovely original English oak desk chair C1910. Dimensions Overall: Height 85cm x Width 57.5cm x Depth 56cm Seat: Height 46cm x Width 46cm Between the Arms x Depth 43cm
