Description

An Exceptional Quality Early 19th Century Regency Period Rosewood Occasional Wine Table, Or Lamp Table, Having Superbly Figured Rectangular Top With Elegant Brass Strung Decoration To Edge, Raised On Reverse Tapered Turned Column And Three Tripod Legs, With Further Brass Stringing And Original Brass Ball Feet. This lovely little wine table has utilised its superbly figured rosewood veneers extremely well. They are highly figured and retain a lovely rich colour and patina. The overall quality of construction, as one would expect, is quite exceptional and clearly a lot of thought and effort has gone into the design and execution during the making of this table. In terms of functionality and places one could use it then the possibilities are endless. With a practical rectangular top which is the perfect size it would suit a whole host of spaces around the home and also it is worth noting that the table is relatively sturdy. As with all items which we offer for sale this lovely regency occasional table has been inspected and attended to in our workshops by our highly skilled and trained antique furniture restorers, who have ensured it is in peak condition whilst giving it...
