Description

A good set of eight Regency mahogany dining chairs, raised on elegant sabre legs, embodying the classic lines of the period. The chairs feature lift-out seats, offering practicality and ease of reupholstery if desired. The top rails display typical Regency carved decoration, while the centre splats are of fluted form, adding both texture and visual interest. The pair of carvers are fitted with elegant fluted and scrolled arms, enhancing their presence at the head of the table. The chairs boast a pleasing colour and patina and are presented in good condition, making them a stylish and functional addition to any dining setting.
