Description

A bronze mounted on marble, by the Romanian artist Zoldan Kovats (1883-1952). He was particularly known for his refined Art Deco sculptures of young women. This example, depicting a decorated silvered and gold effect finished bronze of a poised young woman taming birds on a rope held between her hands and surrounded charmingly by further birds. The lady marked 'Bronze Veritable' and the stepped portoro marble base marked, 'Editions Reveyrolis Paris'. In very good condition. Height: 28cm Width: 52.2cm Depth: 16.9cm
