Description

A wonderfully characterful early 20th-century sporting oil painting depicting a gun dog proudly carrying a pheasant through long grass beneath a bright sky. Executed in oil on canvas and signed and dated 1911 to the lower right, the painting captures the warmth and movement typical of traditional sporting art, with expressive brushwork and rich natural colouring throughout. The subject is presented in a deep black lacquered frame with a gilt slip, which gives the piece a strong decorative presence and makes the colours sing beautifully. An evocative and easy-to-place piece, particularly suited to country house, layered traditional, or hound-loving interiors. Details: Oil on canvas Signed and dated 1911 Sporting subject: gun dog with pheasant Presented in black lacquered frame with gilt slip Condition: Good vintage condition overall, with light wear consistent with age. Minor marks and surface wear to the frame as expected. Ready to hang. Dimensions: Height: 47.5 cm Width: 38.5 cm Depth: 6 cm Price includes delivery to mainland UK.
