

SA1212341

Edwardian- White metal dog collar with original padlock & brass bell

Price

GBP 400

| USD $542 | EUR 468

Item Reference: SA1212341

Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

Stamped "AG&Co" for Arthur Garstin & Co, fancy leather goods and portmanteau manufacturers, Queen Street London EC & Aldersgate Street, London EC. This particular stamp dating the collar to between 1905 – 1909. The collar stamped 'WHITE METAL' with its original red leather lining'. The padlock stamped 'Hand Made' with its original working key. Unpolished and as found. Collar size 9-10cm. Width of collar 2cm Typically: In the 19th century, "white metal" was a common term for various alloys like nickel silver (also known as German silver) or white-plated brass, and in essence looks like silver.

Internal Ref: 26781

Seller Details

Kendall House Antiques Ltd.

Kendall House High Street Chipping Campden Gloucestershire GL55
6AG 7 United Kingdom

Tel: 07880 602715

International Tel: +44 7880 602715

