Description

Antique Oak Settle England 1600s. The settle is in excellent condition throughout and retains a wonderful original patina. The settle is of a lovely small size and profusely carved throughout. The seat is Leather studded on Oak and retains faint signs of original paint/gilding. Structurally the settle is totally solid. I purchased this settle from an estate in Devon, England. The settle had been in the family for many generations and they mentioned it originally came from a Manor House in the Cotswolds, England.
