Description

A beautifully made antique 20th century wardrobe in stunning burr walnut, showcasing exceptional grain and rich figuring throughout. This elegant piece is of good quality and offers both style and practicality, making it a highly desirable addition to any home. The wardrobe features two front-opening doors, revealing a fitted interior with a hanging rail and a mirror to the inside of one door. It stands gracefully on cabriole legs with finely carved knees, adding to its classic charm and sophistication. Presented in good condition, the wardrobe boasts a beautiful warm walnut colour and eye-catching figuring across the entire piece. A lovely size for a variety of interiors, it combines decorative appeal with useful storage. Please note this wardrobe is made as one solid piece and does not come apart.
