Description

A charming antique 20th century oak corner cabinet, beautifully made and full of character. The upper section features two open shelves, ideal for display, while the base section has a blind door cupboard fitted with a single internal shelf, offering useful storage space. The cupboard comes complete with a key. Beautifully carved detail to both the upper section and cupboard door adds to the cabinet's decorative appeal, while the gorgeous oak grain and warm rich colour enhance its timeless character throughout. Standing on bracket feet and presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable example of a practical and attractive size, making it a perfect addition to any home.
