Description

A very well made antique 20th century Edwardian carved oak desk of fine quality, offering both elegance and practicality. Featuring five drawers in total, arranged as two on either side and one central drawer, all retaining their original brass handles. The top drawers are beautifully carved with impressive attention to detail, showcasing skilled craftsmanship and adding to the desk's character and charm. The oak displays a gorgeous rich grain and warm colour throughout, enhancing its timeless appeal. Standing on turned legs with a shaped cross stretcher, this desk has a classic Edwardian presence and is presented in good condition. A highly desirable piece and a perfect addition to any home, study, or office.
