Description

A very well made antique 19th century deep Victorian chest of drawers in mahogany of fine quality, and a rare and unusual find. This striking piece features three drawers to the front, each fitted with beautiful wooden knob handles, offering both charm and practicality. It stands on a solid plinth base and is fitted with casters, allowing it to be easily moved forwards and backwards despite its substantial size. The chest displays stunning mahogany grain and rich figuring throughout, with particularly attractive detail to the drawer fronts. Its deep and substantial design makes it both highly practical and visually impressive, offering generous storage capacity. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable and hard-to-find example. A perfect addition to any home.
