Description

A very well made antique 20th century open bookcase in pine of good quality, offering both practicality and rustic charm. This attractive piece features two open shelves to the front, providing useful display space for books or decorative items. It has a raised gallery to the top and stands on traditional bracket feet, giving it a well-proportioned and classic farmhouse-style appearance. The bookcase displays a gorgeous pine grain and warm natural colour throughout, enhancing its relaxed and characterful look. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable example with a nice farmhouse feel, making it a perfect addition to any home.
